President Johnson and the Reputation of the National Debt.

That Andrew Johnson has shown himself capable of political treachery the country has unfortunately had overwhelming evidence. Few persons, we presume, however, have supposed him capable of an open and direct assault upon the very foundations of the public credit.

Our remarks are based upon the report of "A talk with the President," published in the New York Citizen last Saturday, the conversation having been held with Colonel Charles G. Halpine, the editor of that paper.

It certainly must strike every reflecting mind as very strange that, at a time when the reputation of the national debt is advocated by no political party in the country—not even by the defeated Rebels themselves—by no prominent politician North or South, East or West—by no newspaper, however small or insignificant—the President himself should gravely put forth the idea that such an issue is about to be sprung upon the country, and should proceed to invent arguments and to frame cunning appeals to the masses, in favor of the issue thus broached.

The chief argument which Mr. Johnson relies upon in this new "issue" which he avers to be "looming up," is the cunning assumption that the old slave oligarchy, or aristocracy, of the South has been succeeded by an "oligarchy of bonds and national securities in the States which suppressed the Rebellion."

"On this property in slaves gradually grew up that slave oligarchy or aristocracy, against which the leaders of the anti-slavery party so successfully contended during the twelve years preceding the Rebellion; and after the first plunge into rebellion, the fate of that aristocracy was sealed. It is no thing of the past. With its virtues for it had virtues, courage and hospitality eminently—and with its crimes of pride and lawless revolution, is has entered into history, and is a thing of the past."

"But what do we now find? The aristocracy based on three thousand millions of property in slaves south of Mason and Dixon's line has disappeared, but an aristocracy based on over two thousand five hundred millions of national securities has arisen in the Northern States to assume that political control which the consolidation of great financial with political interests formerly gave to the slave oligarchy of the late Rebel States. The aristocracy based on negro property disappeared at the Southern end of the line, but only to reappear in an oligarchy of bonds and national securities in the States which suppressed the Rebellion."

We may safely leave the common sense of our readers to refute this odious and demagogical sophism, which would put upon a par the patriotic citizen who loaned his money to save the Government and the vile oligarchy that endeavored to overthrow it.

The most limited intelligence can perceive that there is no possible parallelism in any respect between the holders of the Government debt—distributed through all the ranks and grades of society—comprising members of all political parties, and persons of all shades of political opinion, bound together by no class interest except the integrity of the national credit—and that proud and hateful aristocracy which made unprovoked war upon the nation, and made the public debt itself a necessity.

After thus stigmatizing the holders of the most sacred debt ever incurred by any nation—a debt contracted in saving the nation's life—as an "oligarchy," Mr. Johnson goes on artfully to inflame the minds of the people against this class of their fellow-citizens.

when gold was at a premium, so that the Government did not receive full value for what it borrowed. This atrocious sentiment is not relieved any by the meek disclaimer with which it is put forward:—"Now, I am not speaking of this to do anything but to depreciate the fearful issue which the madness of partisan hatred and the blindness of one of our national debt aristocracy to their own true interests is fast forcing upon the country. But it is not clear that the people who have to pay one hundred and eighty millions of dollars a year to this consolidated moneyed oligarchy, must sooner or later commence asking each other, 'How much was actually loaned to our Government during the civil war by these bond-holders, who now claim that we owe them nearly three thousand millions of dollars?' You know what the popular answer must be—I do not say the right answer—less than half the amount they claim, for gold ranged at an average of one hundred premium while this debt was being incurred."

No comments of ours can add to the indignation which must fill every honorable breast at such words as these. The animus of this wicked attack upon the public credit comes out in one of Mr. Johnson's characteristic assaults upon Congress. He speaks of the Reconstruction bill as a "high-handed measure of Congressional usurpation," and rings his usual changes upon the "Constitution," his own "conscience rectitude," etc. "That we are to have a great financial crash this year," he predicts as "inevitable."

Ordinary language fails to characterize the enormity of such an attack as the President has made upon the public credit. It bears all the marks of careful and premeditated preparation. It is specious, and full of appeals to popular passion. It is put forth on the President's authority, by one of his special supporters. It strikes a blow at the entire business interests of the country. It is a studied argument for the repudiation of the National debt—a measure which can only be reached through national bankruptcy and disgrace, and the utter prostration of every branch of private industry and enterprise.

Which are the Most Helpless? Even since the conclusion of the war we have been edified with Democratic anathemas against the "lazy blacks" who are lying on their backs and having the Government feed them. And while denunciations are thus poured upon the negroes, the utmost sympathy is expressed for the poor "whites" who are starving because of the destitution caused by the war, and because of the parsimony of the Northern people. The Commissioner of Freedmen, General O. O. Howard, in conformity with a resolution of the House, has communicated the data of the number of whites and negroes whom the Government must either feed or let starve. The table reads:—

The total foots up—dependent whites, 32,923; while the blacks amount to 19,738. From this it will be seen that, despite the fact that the four millions of blacks were totally unaccustomed to self-support, yet the number who have failed to maintain themselves is a third less than the number of whites who have to depend on the Government. We need no better refutation of the slander that the negro is proverbially lazy and will not work for himself, than the figures given us as to the number and color of those who are either unable or unwilling to use sufficient exertion to keep themselves from pauperism.

AMUSEMENTS. THE JAPANESE.—The great Eastern jugglers will appear three times this week at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday afternoon and evening and Saturday afternoon, for whose performance seats and tickets may be secured at any time. During the past week the jugglers have performed with immense audiences, and their feats have invariably been pronounced neat and wonderful. The troupe can only remain in the city for a limited time.

ROFENING OF CONCERT HALL.—Master Richard Cook will reopen Concert Hall this evening with an excellent musical entertainment. He will also give his farewell concert to-morrow (Tuesday) night, at which time he will be assisted by Miss Starling, Mrs. C. Schilling, Signor Strini, and Mr. E. Bidler. They will be Master Cook's last performances prepared to leave for Paris, Concert Hall has been reopened under the management of Messrs. Beauty & Lurman, lessee, and has been refurnished and fully equipped to concert the best French entertainments. The Peak family of Swiss Bell-Ringers, assisted by the French family will open there next Monday. This is a consolidated troupe of all the best-ringers in the country.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Mr. James E. Murdoch, the distinguished American pianist and tragedian, will give two of his famous "readings" this and to-morrow evening, the contents of which will give us the beauties of Shakespeare and the Bible combined, and will endeavor to show the love of the great bard for the sacred scriptures, and his intimate acquaintance with the Bible. To-morrow (Tuesday) evening, Mr. Murdoch gives his "Evening with Sir Walter Scott," which will be a "Night of Romance, par excellence."

CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.—The popular drama called the Streets of Philadelphia will be produced this evening, with all the fine local scenery. Miss Reynolds appears in the play, supported by Miss Jones and all the company. On Wednesday, Miss Kate Reynolds will also appear in Two Old Plays at That Theatre. This is the last week of Miss Kate Reynolds' engagement.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Miss Lucille Western, whose arrival has long been anticipated, begins to-night an engagement at the Walnut, opening with her great play of Beat Lyonesse, or the Betrothal. The characters of this well-known play will be taken by the excellent company at the Walnut. Mr. G. H. Clark, representing "Archibald Carlyle" and Mr. Walcott "Sir Francis Lyonesse," Miss Western will appear every evening during the week.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Our comedies in full tide for popularity, and will be played throughout the present week with its fine cast, splendid scenery, brass band, and march of the troops by moonlight. Mrs. John Drew plays "The Money" in excellent style.

GOLD AND SILVER MINING.

RICHEST GOLD REGION IN THE WORLD. MONTANA TERRITORY. Credited Production last year, $18,000,000 in Gold. Actual Production last year, $33,000,000 in Gold.

EXCEEDING CALIFORNIA, NEVADA, COLORADO, AUSTRALIA, Etc. The attention of capitalists and others is called to the magnitude, legitimacy and unparalleled fairness of the following guaranteed statement of the Hubbell and Patton Gold and Silver Company, Of the City of Philadelphia, State of Penna. Offering greater inducements, free from risk, than any other corporation Company ever organized.

This Company owns 11,950 feet gold lodes and 900 feet silver lodes in Montana Territory. Perfect titles, 7800 feet situated on Trout Creek, the richest gold district in the Territory, within twenty miles of Helena. The lodes are tested and proven. Our samples of ore assayed by Charles F. Williams, Esq., No. 135 Walnut Street, the "popular analytical chemist," produced as follows—Alta Ledge, per ton, $241-33; gold; Governor Bigler Ledge, $185-90; (George Law Ledge, $156-80. Some assays as high as $900 per ton; but these are specialties. Our lodes adjoin, and are the same as the Gaston, Simpson & Co. produced from it in five weeks $24,997-49. A Mr. Whittach produced in six weeks $100,000 gold. Four miners took out last season 700,000 gold.

Capital, $1,000,000, in 20,000 shares at $50 each. Only 2500 Shares Preferred Stock. The only stock to be disposed of is 2500 shares preferred, to be used exclusively as a Working Capital, issued at $20 per share, full paid, liable to no further assessment, and to be subscribed only upon the following conditions—

1st. That said $20,000 subscribed in currency on the preferred 2500 shares shall be returned in gold, as dividends on said preferred stock, out of the first $100,000 net produced by the Company.

2d. That said Company shall have thirteen Directors under their charter, nine of whom, out of said thirteen, shall be elected from the subscribers to the said 2500 shares of preferred stock.

3d. That said $90,000 shall be deposited in the best National Bank of Philadelphia, and no part thereof can be drawn or used, unless by authority and approval of the Board of Directors.

4th. That officers of the Company receive no salary or emolument whatever, until the said $50,000 is paid back to the subscribers in full, in gold.

5th. That the Hubbell and Patton Crushing Machine and Amalgamator, immensely valuable inventions, belong to this Company expressly. No other Company has been privileged to use them. The crusher's wonderful power, equalling a mill of forty stamps in tons reduced, and reusing by its superior pulverization about twice as much gold per ton; a forty stamp mill would cost $100,000. This machine cost but $8000.

6th. That said 2500 shares preferred stock, with its dividend, is a better security than a first mortgage on the immensely valuable mines and machinery of the Company.

7th. The mines of this Company, from ascertained facts, as to width and richness of the lodes or ores, are estimated to contain, to the depth of only 1000 feet, at least 1,327,777 cubic yards of ore, which will yield about $30 per yard, amounting to $298,555,400.
